A. Generating Search Terms

_B False_ Once I have chosen my topic, I should stick with it while I’m searching for sources.

A. True
B. False

_D_ What is one reason why brainstorming search terms is important?

A. Articles on the same topic always use the same terms.
B. You can’t use the same terms to search library databases that you use to search the internet.
C. Brainstorming search terms is a waste of time.
D. Authors with different viewpoints will use different terms to describe the same topic.

_B False_ You should type your full topic sentence into the search box to find the most relevant results.

A. True
B. False

_B_ After you have written a topic sentence/question, which of the following should you do FIRST when brainstorming search terms?

A. Search your library’s catalog to find results.
B. Pick out the words from your topic sentence/question that represent the main ideas.
C. Search the internet to find results
D. Formulate your thesis.